✠ Music at The Cathedral of Saint Joseph ✠
2016 – 2017

Welcome to a new season of sacred music at The Cathedral of Saint Joseph. Music has always played an important role in the life of this Cathedral parish.

Included in this booklet is a listing of music to be sung by assembly, cantors and the Cathedral Choir, highlighting each Sunday, feast or liturgical season.

“Sing to the Lord a new song: sing to the Lord all the earth. Sing to the Lord, and bless his Name: proclaim the good news of his salvation from day to day.”

Psalm 96:1-2

“When there is devotional music, God is always at hand with His gracious presence.”

J.S. Bach

“Music for the liturgy must be carefully chosen and prepared.”

Sing to the Lord (Music in Divine Worship) Article 122

“The treasury of sacred music is to be preserved and fostered with great care.

Choirs must be diligently developed, especially in cathedral churches.”

Constitution of the Sacred Liturgy, Article 114

“Music is the means of recapturing the original joy and beauty of Paradise.”

St. Hildegard von Bingen

“All other things being equal, Gregorian chant holds pride of place because it is proper to the Roman Liturgy. Other types of sacred music, in particular polyphony, are in no way excluded, provided that they correspond to the spirit of the liturgical action and that they foster the participation of the faithful.”

General Instruction of the Roman Missal (Third Typical Edition), 2002

*Cathedral of Saint Joseph
Manchester, New Hampshire*

ADVENT / LITURGICAL YEAR “A”

“Advent has a two-fold character: as a sermon to prepare for Christmas when Christ’s first coming to us is remembered; as a season when that remembrance directs our mind and heart to await Christ’s second coming at the end of time. Advent thus is a period of devout and joyful expectation.”
(General Norms for the Liturgical Year and Calendar, #39).

Note: During the seasons of Advent and Christmas, “Verbum domini” is chanted following the first and second readings. The cantor should remind both the celebrant and lector prior to Mass.

After the first reading:

After the second reading or if there is only reading before the Gospel:

LENT

The annual Lenten season is the fitting time to climb the holy mountain of Easter. The Lenten season has a double character, namely to prepare both catechumens and faithful to celebrate the paschal mystery. The catechumens, both with the rite of elections and scrutinizes, and by catechesis, are prepared for the celebration of the sacraments of Christian initiation; the faithful, ever more attentive to the Word of God and prayer, prepare themselves by penance, for the renewal of their baptismal promises (Ceremoniale episcoporum, 249).

Note: During the seasons of Lent and Easter, “Verbum domini” is chanted following the first and second readings. The Cantor should remind both the celebrant and lector prior to Mass.

After the first reading:

After the second reading or if there is only reading before the Gospel:

HOLY WEEK AND EASTER TRIDUUM

Christ redeemed us all and gave perfect glory to God principally through his paschal mystery: dying he destroyed our death and rising he restored our life. Therefore, the Easter triduum of the passion and resurrection of Christ is the culmination of the entire liturgical year. Thus the solemnity of Easter has the same kind of preeminence in the liturgical year that Sunday has in the week. The Easter triduum begins with the Evening Mass of the Lord's Supper, reaches its high point in the Easter vigil, and closes with evening prayer on Easter Sunday (General Norms, 18-19).

✠ Sunday 9 April 2017

Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion

On this day the Church recalls the entrance of Christ the Lord into Jerusalem to accomplish his Paschal Mystery. Accordingly, the memorial of this entrance of the Lord takes place at all masses, by means of the Procession or the Solemn Entrance before the principal mass or the Simple Entrance before other Masses. The Solemn Entrance, but not the Procession, may be repeated before other Masses that are usually celebrated with a large gathering of people. It is desirable that, where neither the Procession nor the Solemn Entrance can take place, there be a sacred celebration of the Word of God on the messianic entrance and on the Passion of the Lord, either on Saturday evening or on Sunday at a convenient time.

Commemoration of the Lord's Entrance into Jerusalem

10:30 a.m. Mass – Cathedral Choir: Hosanna Filio David (Victoria)

Tuesday of Holy Week / Chrism Mass

All Christians are anointed because all are filled with the Spirit's gifts for the building up of the church and the church's service to the world. In every local church one Christian presides in love and orchestrates the church's ministry. This is the bishop, or chief pastor. It is not surprising, therefore, that the most ancient liturgical witnesses designate the bishop as the consecrator of the sacramental oils. Although priests once blessed the oils of the catechumens and the sick and may do so in some circumstances, only the bishop may consecrate the chrism with which the baptized are sealed at confirmation and ordination. This rite is one of the last rites of preparation before the Triduum begins. Before the local church baptizes, it prepares the chrism which will be used in the Vigil.

This celebration has always retained a special character of collegiality. Even in the centuries when Eucharistic concelebration had disappeared from the church's life, the ritual for the blessing and consecration of oils retained strong elements which reminded all that ministry in the church is never the work of an individual but part of a community of ministers of different gifts and responsibilities. The present celebration of the rite has been restored as full concelebration of the bishop with his clergy and with the full participation of the laity.

Chrism Mass, 6:00 p.m.

Procession: Ecce Sacerdos (Vittoria) *Behold a great priest, who in his days pleased God.
And found the just.* (Ecclesiasticus 43:16, 27)

Music TBA

8:00 a.m. Morning Prayer – Consult separate worship aid

7:00 p.m. Evening Mass of the Lord's Supper

At the Last Supper, on the night when he was betrayed, our Savior instituted the Eucharistic Sacrifice of His body and blood. The tabernacle should be empty: a sufficient number of hosts should be consecrated at this Mass for the communion of the clergy and laity today and tomorrow. The reception of the holy oils blessed at the Chrism Mass may be received by the local community either before this liturgy or at another appropriate time. Mass begins with the Entrance Antiphon or an appropriate hymn.

Processional Hymn: Lord, Who At Thy First Eucharist [Unde Et Memores]

Introit: We should glory in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, for he is our salvation, our life and our resurrection, through him we are saved and made free. (Galatians 6:14)

According to the Church's ancient tradition, Mass is not celebrated today. The celebration of the Lord's Passion consists of three parts: Liturgy of the Word, Veneration of the Cross and Holy Communion.

PART I: LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading: Isaiah 52:13-53:12 (40ABC)

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 31 – Father, into your hands I commend my spirit. (Kelly)

Second Reading: Hebrews 4:14-16; 5:7-9

Gospel Acclamation: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, King of endless glory! (Schoen)

Versicle: Christ became obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross.

Because of this, god greatly exalted him and bestowed him on the name which is above every other name. (Psalm Tone V)

Gospel: The Passion of the Lord According to John 18:1-19:42 – Chanted, setting by T. Marier
Homily

Solemn Intercessions

[The Liturgy of the Word concludes with the Solemn Intercessions, which take place in this way: the Deacon, if a Deacon is present, or if he is not, a lay minister, stands at the ambo, and sings or says the invitation in which the intention is expressed. Then all pray in silence for a while, and afterwards the Priest, standing at the chair or, if appropriate, at the altar, with hands extended, sings or says the prayer. The faithful may remain either kneeling or standing throughout the entire period of the prayers.]

[Collection: Offering for the Preservation of the Sacred Places in the Holy Land]

Hymn: O Sacred Head Surrounded [Passion Chorale] – SATB verses

PART II: ADORATION OF THE HOLY CROSS

The Deacon accompanied by ministers, or another suitable minister, goes to the sacristy, from which, in procession, accompanied by two ministers with lighted candles, he carries the Cross, covered with a violet veil, through the church to the middle of the sanctuary. The Priest, standing before the altar and facing the people, receives the Cross, uncovers a little of its upper part and elevates it while beginning the Ecce Iungum Crucis (Behold the wood of the Cross). He is assisted in singing by the Deacon or, if need be, by the choir. All respond, Come, let us adore. At the end of the singing, all kneel and for a brief moment adore in silence, while the Priest stand and holds the Cross raised.

Priest or Deacon:

Be - hold the wood of the Cross, on which hung the sal - va - tion of the world. Come, let us a - dore.

Assembly:

Then the Priest uncovers the right arm of the Cross and again, raising up the Cross, begins, Behold the wood of the Cross, and everything takes place as above. Finally, he uncovers the Cross entirely and, raising it up, he begins the invitation Behold the wood of the Cross a third time and everything takes place like the first time.

Music during the Adoration of the Holy Cross:

1. O Cross of Christ [St. Flavian]
2. Jesus, Remember Me (Taizé)
3. O Crux Benedicta (Montiverdi)
4. Adoramus Te Christe (Non Papa)
5. duet: Stabat Mater Dolorosa (Pergolesi)
6. Vere Languores Nostros (Lotti)*
*If needed

PART III: HOLY COMMUNION

[The Priest brings the ciborium with the Blessed Sacrament from the place of reposition to the altar without any procession, while all stand in silence. Two servers with lighted candles accompany him and place their candles near the altar on it. The Lord's Prayer is sung or recited at this point.]

- Communion:
1. Sing My Tongue, How Glorious Battle [Picardy] OR "Faithful Cross" (Willan)
  2. Choral Anthem: O Bone Jesu (Palestrina)

[Following a prayer after communion and a prayer over the people, all depart in silence. The altar is then stripped at a convenient time.]

- 6:30 p.m. Stations of the Cross – Stabat Mater, Cathedral Organ Scholar

8:00 a.m. Morning Prayer – Consult separate worship aid

On Holy Saturday the Church waits at the Lord’s tomb in prayer and fasting, meditation on his Passion and Death and on his Descent into Hell, and awaiting his Resurrection. The Church abstains from the Sacrifice of the Mass, with the sacred table left bare, until after the solemn Vigil, that is, the anticipation by night of the Resurrection, when the time comes for paschal joys, the abundance of which overflows to occupy fifty days. Holy Communion may only be given on this day as Viaticum.

The Great Vigil of Easter, 8:00 p.m.

By most ancient tradition, this is the night of keeping vigil for the Lord (Ex 12:42), in which, following the Gospel admonition (Lk 12:35-37), the faithful, carrying lighted lamps in their hands, should be like those looking for the Lord when he returns, so that at his coming he may find them awake and have them sit at his table. Of this night’s Vigil, which is the greatest and most noble of all solemnities, there is to be only celebration in each church. It is arranged, moreover, in such a way that after the Lucernarium and Easter Proclamation (which constitutes the first part of this Vigil), Holy Church meditates on the wonders the Lord God has done for his people from the beginning, trusting in his word and promise (the second part, that is, the Liturgy of the Word) until, as day approaches, with new members reborn in Baptism (the third part), the Church is called to the table the Lord has prepared for his people, the memorial of his Death and Resurrection until he comes again (the fourth part).

PART I: LUCERNARIUM

The Blessing of the Fire and Preparation of the Candle

PROCESSION: When the candle has been lit, one of the ministers takes burning coals from the fire and places them in the thurible, and the Priest puts incense into it in the usual way. The Deacon or, if there is no Deacon, another suitable minister, takes the paschal candle and a procession forms. The thurifer with the smoking thurible precedes the Deacon or other minister who carries the paschal candle. After them follows the Priest with the ministers and the people, all holding in their hands unlit candles.

At the door of the church, the Deacon or other suitable minister, standing and raising up the candle, sings: Priest/Deacon intones: “The Light of Christ.” or “Lumen Christi.”

Cantor and Assembly: “Thanks be to God.” or “Deo gratias.”

The Priest lights his candle from the flame of the paschal candle. Then the Deacon processes to the middle of the darkened church and, standing and raising up the candle, sings a second time:

“The Light of Christ.” or “Lumen Christi.”

ALL: “Thanks be to God.” or “Deo gratias.”

All light their candles from the Easter candle and continue in procession. When the Deacon arrives before the altar, he stands facing the people, raises up the candle and sings a third time:

“The Light of Christ.” or “Lumen Christi.”

ALL: “Thanks be to God.” or “Deo gratias.”

The Easter Proclamation (Exsultet)

PART II: LITURGY OF THE WORD

There are seven readings from the Old Testament and two from the New (the Epistle and Gospel), all of which should be read whenever this can be done, so that the character of the Vigil, which demands an extended period of time, may be preserved. Nevertheless, where more serious pastoral circumstances demand it, the number of readings from the Old Testament may be reduced, always bearing in mind that the reading of the Word of God is a fundamental part of this Easter Vigil. At least three readings should be read from the Old Testament, both from the Law and from the Prophets, and their respective Responsorial Psalms should be sung. Never, moreover, should the reading of chapter 14 of Exodus with its canticle be omitted. Following each reading from the Old Testament the Responsorial Psalm is sung. Then all rise, the Bishop says, "Let us pray" and, after all have prayed for a while in silence, he says the prayer corresponding to the reading.

Reading I: Genesis 1:1-2:2

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 104 – Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth. (Kelly)

Reading II: Genesis 22:1-18

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 16 – You are my inheritance, O Lord. (Kelly)

Reading III: Exodus 14:15-15:1

Responsorial Psalm: Exodus 15 – Let us sing to the Lord, he has covered himself in glory. (Kelly)

Reading IV: Isaiah 54:5-14

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 30 – I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me. (Kelly)

Reading V: Isaiah 55:1-11

Responsorial Psalm: Isaiah 12:2-6 – You will draw water joyfully from the springs of salvation. (Kelly)

Reading VI: Baruch 3:9-15, 32-4:4

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 19 – Lord, you have the words of everlasting life. (Kelly)

Reading VII: Ezekiel 36:16-17a, 18-28

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 42 – Like a deer that longs for running streams (Kelly)

[When baptism is not celebrated: Psalm 51 – Create a clean heart in me, O God. (Kelly)]

Gloria: Gloria from Missa DeAngelis (Chant, Mode V)

Epistle Reading: Romans 6:3-11

Gospel Acclamation: Solemn Alleluia intoned by Bishop and repeated three times, rising ½ step.

Bishop intones, all repeat.

EASTER SEASON

During the Easter Season the Church extends the joy and gladness of Easter day throughout several weeks. The Solemnity of Easter itself, and in particular the Great Easter Vigil, is the highpoint of the liturgical year. Since the celebration of the Easter feast is of such pre-eminence, the Church extends that celebration for seven days, called Easter Week. Each day of Easter Week is a solemnity of high rank, and rituals peculiar to Easter (like the double “Alleluia” sung at the dismissal) are continued each day during Easter Week. The importance of the “Week of Easters” is such that the Church multiplies it seven times seven, creating a season of joy and festivity. Thus, the Easter Season is highly symbolic in length, a season of 7 times 7 days, culminating in the descent of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost (pente meaning “fiftieth”).

Music Notes: During the Easter Season, the Rite of Sprinkling will be used at all weekend Masses in addition to the Verbum Domini after the readings. The Cathedral Choir will also sing the Gospel acclamation versicle through Corpus Christi.

Offertory Antiphon: Grace has been poured out on your lips; therefore, God has blessed you for ever, world without end. (Psalm 45:3) [Verses of Psalm 45 can also be sung between repetitions of the antiphon.]

Communion Antiphon: With my own eyes I have seen the salvation which you have prepared in the sight of all nations. (Luke 2:30-31)

✠ 19 March: Solemnity of Saint Joseph, Husband of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Introit: The Lord has put his faithful servant in charge of his household. (Luke 12:42)

Communion Antiphon: Come, good and faithful servant! Share the joy of your Lord! (Matthew 25:21)

✠ 25 March: Annunciation

Introit: As Christ came into the world, he said: Behold! I have come to do your will, O God.

Communion Antiphon: The Virgin is with child and shall bear a son, and she will call him Emmanuel.

✠ Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

Introit: Blessed be God the Father and his only-begotten Son and the Holy Spirit for he has shown that he loves us.

Offertory Antiphon: Blessed be God the Father, and God the only-begotten Son, and God the Holy Spirit, who has shown us his mercy.

OR Blessed are you in the firmament of heaven, praiseworthy and glorious forever. (Daniel 3:56)

[Verses from Daniel 3:57-59, 84-87 can also be sung between repetitions of the antiphon.]

Communion Antiphon: You are the sons of God, so God has given you the Spirit of his Son to form your hearts and make you cry out: Abba, Father. (Galatians 4:6)

✠ Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ [Corpus Christi]

Introit: The Lord fed his people with the finest wheat and honey; their hunger was satisfied (Psalm 81:17)

Offertory Antiphon: The Lord opened the doors of heaven. He rained down manna upon them for food and gave them heavenly bread. The bread of angels was eaten by men, alleluia. (Psalm 78:23-25a)

OR Moses consecrated the altar of the Lord, offering upon it sacrifices and peace offerings. He ordered the evening sacrifice to the Lord God in the odor of holiness, in the presence of the children of Israel. (Ex. 24:4-5)

OR You nourished your people with the food of angels, and gave them the bread of heaven, alleluia.

Communion Antiphon: Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood will live in me and I in him, says the Lord. (John 6:57)

✠ 23 June: Vigil of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist

Introit: From his mother's womb, he will be filled with the Holy Spirit, he will be great in the sight of the Lord, and many will rejoice at this birth. (Luke 1:15, 14)

Communion Antiphon: Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, for he has visited and redeemed his people. (Luke 1:68)

✠ 24 June : Solemnity of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist

Introit: There was a man sent from God whose name was John. He came to bear witness to the light, to prepare an upright people for the Lord. (John 1:6-7, Luke 1:17)

Communion Antiphon: Through the tender compassion of our God, the dawn from on high shall break upon us. (Luke 1:78)

✠ 28 June: Vigil of the Solemnity of Saint Peter and Saint Paul

Introit: Peter the apostle and Paul the teacher of the Gentiles have brought us to know the law of the Lord.

Communion Antiphon: Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these? Lord, you know all things, you know that I love you. (John 21:15, 17)

✠ 29 June: Vigil of the Solemnity of Saint Peter and Saint Paul

Introit: These men, conquering all human frailty, shed their blood and helped the Church to grow. By sharing the cup of the Lord's suffering, they became the friends of God.

Communion Antiphon: Peter said: You are the Christ, the Son of the living God. Jesus answered: You are Peter, the rock on which I will build my Church. (Matthew 16, 18)

✠ 6 August: Transfiguration

Introit: In the shining cloud the Spirit is seen; from it the voice of the Father is heard: This is my Son, my beloved, in whom is all my delight. Listen to him. (Matthew 17:5)

Communion Antiphon: When Christ is revealed we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is. (1 John 3:2)

✠ 14 August: Vigil of the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Introit: All honor to you, Mary! Today you were raised above the choirs of angels to lasting glory with Christ.

Offertory Antiphon: Blessed are you, Virgin Mary, who bore the Lord, the Creator of the world; you brought forth the One who made you, and you remained a Virgin forever. [Verses of Psalm 96 can also be sung between repetitions of the antiphon.]

Communion Antiphon: Blessed is the womb of the Virgin Mary, she carried the Son of the eternal Father. (Luke 11:27)

✠ 15 August: Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Introit: A great sign appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, the moon beneath her feet, and a crown of twelve stars on her head. (Rev. 12:1)

Offertory Antiphon: Mary has been taken up to heaven; the angels rejoice. They bless the Lord and sing his praises.

OR By you the gates of paradise have been opened to us; today you triumph gloriously with the angels.

OR Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with you; blessed are you among women. (Luke 1:28)

[Verses of Psalm 96 or Psalm 85 can also be sung between repetitions of the antiphon.]

Communion Antiphon: All generations will call me blessed, for the Almighty has done great things for me. (Luke 1:48-49)

✠ 14 September: Exaltation of the Holy Cross

Introit: We should glory in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, for he is our salvation, our life and our resurrection; through him we are saved and made free. (Gal. 6:14)

Communion Antiphon: When I am lifted up from the earth,
I will draw all men to myself, says the Lord. (John 12:32)

✠ 1 November: Solemnity of All Saints

Introit: Let us rejoice in the Lord and keep a festival in honor of all the saints. Let us join with the angels in joyful praise to the Son of God.

Offertory Antiphon: The souls of the just are in the hand of God, and no torment shall touch them. They seem in the view of the foolish to be dead, but they are at peace, alleluia. (Wisdom 3:1,2a 3b)

OR I will give my Saints an everlasting name; joy and gladness shall be theirs forever. (Sirach 15:6)
[Verses of Psalm 5 can also be sung between repetitions of the antiphon.]

Communion Antiphon: Happy are the pure of heart for they shall see God. Happy the peacemakers; they shall be called sons of God. Happy are those who suffer persecution for justice sake; the kingdom of heaven is theirs. (Matthew 5:8-10)

2 November: Commemoration of all the Faithful Departed (Feast of All Souls)

Introit: Just as Jesus died and rose again, so will the Father bring with him those who have died in Jesus. Just as in Adam all men die, so in Christ all will be made alive. (1 Thessalonians 4:14; I Corinthians 15:22)

Communion Antiphon: I am the resurrection and the life, says the Lord. If anyone believes in me, even though he dies, he will live. Anyone who lives and believes in me, will not die. (John 11:25-26)

✠ 9 November: Feast of the Dedication St. John Lateran Basilica

Introit: Greatly to be feared is God in his sanctuary; he, the God of Israel, gives power and strength to his people. Blessed be God! (Psalm (67) 68:36)

Communion Antiphon: You are the temple of God, and God's Spirit dwells in you. The temple of God is holy; you are that temple. (1 Cor. 3:16-17)

✠ Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ the King

Introit: The Lamb who was slain is worthy to receive strength and divinity; wisdom and power and honor: to him be glory and power for ever. (Rev. 5:12, 1:6)

Offertory Antiphon: Ask me and I will give you the nations for an inheritance and the ends of the earth for your possession. (Psalm 2:8)

OR I will make you a light to the nations, that my salvation may reach to the ends of the earth. (Isaiah 49:6b) [Verses of Psalm 47 can also be sung between repetitions of the antiphon.]

Communion Antiphon:
The Lord will reign for ever and will give his people the gift of peace (Ps 29:10-11)
